

What She Said

Jim Cuddy

Could it be me, waiting in wonder
I don't even know what's in your mind
Crowding around, watching your thunder
Hoping just to see you one more time

Could it be me, out here waiting all night long
Could it be me, praying dawn comes along

And over my head she said all the clouds have come together
Life hurts a lot, but only love can break you down forever
All these places, and strangers' faces, and if you think I'm losing faith
It's only in your head that's what she said

Could it be me, now that we're fading
Finding ways of holding on again
Out in the night we could be fated
Walking through our sorrows in the rain

Could it be me, walking through these halls at night
Could it be me, watching you put up a fight

And all by myself I can see the clouds have come together
Life hurts a lot, but only love can hold you up forever
All these places, and strangers' faces, I'm taking all them with me
When I'm safely in my head, that's what she said
