

Better Late Than Never

Jim James

Better late than never, yeah, yeah
Better late than never, yeah, yeah
Better late than never, oh, oh
Better late than never

I got the four strong winds at my back
My mind is fresh and clean
'Cause everything has to feel so final
Funeral pyres and old desires
Burn witches at the stake
No matter what we do or don't
Fresh ash, all that remains

Eh! (Better late than never)
Oh! (Better late than never)

You have to turn it off and turn it on and
Crash it through the glass
Have they been crushing skulls or smoking bones
Sifting through the ash
Come with all it, come with all it
Cultures start to clash
Empires fall to the ground
We are delighted by the crash

Tell me now so I won't have to Fulfill your every wish
Better late than never
Better late than never, oh, oh
Better late than never, yeah, yeah
Better late than never
Better late than never, yeah, yeah
Better late than never (Yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah)
Better late than never, oh, oh
Better late than never (Yeah!)
