

Better Me

Jim Jones

"Love is a funny thing, you gotta watch what chu ask for, it could get cha"

I'm your moon, you're my star,
You're my sun, I'm you're sky,
You shine right through those cloudy days,
You drive all my pain away;

If you the sun, then I'm the rain,
People say opposites attract, (true)
But really girl we like one in the same,
How opposite is that? (you crazy)
And, there's no comparison,
Or, No one to compare you to, (who)
Cuz, no one gets near to you, (never)
At night time I say a prayer for you,
When I'm Wit my son, and my moms, and my sisters too,
But I'm, love sick like its just the flu,
So, just for that I'm forever in-debted,
Get Chanel bags girl, get whatever, don't sweat it, (cop dat)
My better half make a better me, (what)
What's done in the past is dead to me,
I'm only looking at what's ahead of me,
And if you gotta go put the lead to me,
(Clear) If you could see my thoughts, (uh)
Some say, "Louise and George",
Others say, "Claire and Cliff",
But I say Bonnie and Clyde, (Clyde)
Everybody know that my mami'll ride,
Till the wheels fall off and the sun collide,
The ups and the downs,
The richer or poorer,
What the fuck is rich
Without a Mrs. to adore?

I'm your moon, you're my star,
You're my sun, I'm you're sky,
You shine right through those cloudy days,
You drive all my pain away;
I can smile, when you frown,
Pick you up, when you're down,
You're the reason, can't you see?
The reason I'm a, Better Me;

Wit a little bit of love
And a little bit of trust
And a little bit of faith
We'll be alright,
Just as long as you love me girl,
And stay by my side,
You're the air that I breathe,
Girl you make me so complete,
You're my total opposite,
Bringin' out the best in me;

I'm your moon, you're my star,
You're my sun, I'm you're sky,
You shine right through those cloudy days,

You drive all my pain away;
I can smile, when you frown,
Pick you up, when you're down,
You're the reason, can't you see?
The reason I'm a, Better Me;
