Just Call Me Lonesome

Jim Reeves

Why must I love a heartless one?
Who'll never know the harm she's done
Though love is blind, I should have known
Just call me lonesome from now on

I climb the stairs up to my room
But, no one meets me in the gloom
And the silence tells me, she is gone
Just call me lonesome from now on

These walls will hide me, when I cry And pray that heaven lets me die What good is life, when hope is gone? Just call me lonesome from now on

I pray my memories at last Will fade into the distant past And if I must live and love alone Just call me lonesome from now on Just call me lonesome from now on
