Ain't No Telling

Jimi Hendrix

Well, there ain't no, Ain't no Ain't no telling, baby When you will see me again, but I pray It will be tomorrow.

Well, the sunrise Sunrise Is burning my eyes, baby I must leave now, but I really hope To see you tomorrow

Well my house is, oh, such a sad mile away, The feeling there always hangs up my day Oh, Cleopatra, She's driving me insane, She's trying to put my body in her brain. So just kiss me goodbye, just to ease the pain. Ain't no Ain't no Ain't no Ain't no telling baby Ain't no telling babe Ain't no telling babe Ain't no telling baby when you're gonna see me, but I really ho pe It will be tomorrow You know what I'm talking 'bout. Ain't no telling Sorry, but I must leave now
