

How To Be Single

Jimmie Allen

It's just a guessin' game
It's where you from, what's your name?
What's your favorite kinda music?
Sounds like a real good time
A different party every night but
Baby when it comes down to it
The truth is nah

I don't wanna go out, I don't wanna get numbers
I don't wanna have to wait two days and wonder
Should I call, should I text?
Guessin' who's gonna hit who up next, yeah
I don't wanna be cool, I don't wanna be clever
Try to talk somebody into leavin' together
I don't wanna get drunk, I don't wanna mingle
I don't wanna know how to be single
Now baby I don't

That used to be so fun
Back when I was anyone
Whoever I met wanted me to be, yeah
But wakin' up with you is so much better
The nice to meet you see you never
Baby I don't miss that mystery, nah
That's history 'cause

I don't wanna go out, I don't wanna get numbers
I don't wanna have to wait two days and wonder
Should I call, should I text?
Guessin' who's gonna hit who up next, yeah
I don't wanna be cool, I don't wanna be clever
Try to talk somebody into leavin' together
I don't wanna get drunk, I don't wanna mingle
I don't wanna know how to be single
Now baby I don't
Now baby I don't

Just out here shootin' doubles
Gettin' into trouble
It's always the same thing, the same thing

I don't wanna go out, I don't wanna get numbers
I don't wanna have to wait two days and wonder
Should I call, should I text?
Guessin' who's gonna hit who up next, nah
I don't wanna be cool, I don't wanna be clever
Try to talk somebody into leavin' together
I don't wanna get drunk, I don't wanna mingle
I don't wanna know how to be single
Now baby I don't
Now baby I don't
Yeah I don't wanna know how to be single
Now baby I don't
Now baby I don't
I don't wanna know how to be single
