

Belvedere And Cigarettes

Jimmy Barnes

And I've been running round this world for years
Oh darlin', oh darlin'
Drowning like a clown in my own tears
I'm drowning, oh darlin'

On and on and on, it's a long and lonely road
Staring at the sun, 'cause I got no place left to go

Belvedere and cigarettes, I'm bleeding myself dry
I'm bleeding, my darlin'
If only love was in a glass, I'd swallow all my pride
But I've been busy kissin' love goodbye
Goodbye

I've been tangled up in my own head
I'm tryin', still tryin'
Trying to leave the comfort of my bed
I'm lyin', to you and to myself

On and on and on, I'm a man without a home
What have I become, seems the blues is all I know

Belvedere and cigarettes, I'm bleeding myself dry
I'm bleeding, my darlin'
And if only love was in a glass, I'd swallow all my pride
But I've been busy kissin' love goodbye
Goodbye

On and on and on, I'm just a man without a home
What have I become, it seems the blues is all I know

Belvedere and cigarettes, I'm bleeding myself dry
I'm bleeding, my darlin'
If only love was in a glass, I'd swallow all my pride
But I've been busy kissing love goodbye
Goodbye

Belvedere and cigarettes, I'm bleeding myself dry
I'm bleeding my darlin'
If only love was in a glass, I'd swallow all my pride
But I've been busy kissing love goodbye
Goodbye
