

Brahma Fear

Jimmy Buffett

I'd like to ride the rodeo, but I've got Brahma fear
So I'll just stick to aeroplanes and gently pop my ears
Drank a lotta whiskey, it gives me such a glow
It makes me quite immobile, but it lets my feelings show

And I'm somewhere below the spotlight
Somewhere below the ground
You dig deep enough, you might find me
Find me and you've found my sound

Yes, I own a whaler boat, it slides across the sea
And some folks say I'm part of it and I know it's part of me
And when I'm feelin' solitaire, it lets me be alone
And when I want to habitate, it carries me back home

And I'm somewhere below the sunlight
Somewhere upon the sea
You dig deep enough, you might find me
Find me 'cause that's where I'll be

Yes, I drank a lot of whiskey, it gives me such a glow
It makes me quite immobile, but it lets my feelings show
Yes, it makes me quite immobile, but it lets my feelings show
