

Smart Woman (In A Real Short Skirt)

Jimmy Buffett

So I told her, ooh you got money of your own?
Well, that gives me the urge to merge

Bimbo limbo is where I've been
I know you know that it's wearing me thin
The times are changing and it's about time
I'm rearranging all the guilt in my mind

I'm looking for a smart woman in a real short skirt
Smart woman who knows how to flirt
Smart woman got a mind of her own
Smart woman that'll take me home, take me home

I'm not your macho kinda guy
But I can be so when I'm feeling shy
Hey baby, where'd you get your good looks?
Ooh babe, I want to carry your books

I'm looking for a smart woman in a real short skirt
Smart woman who knows how to flirt
Smart woman got a mind of her own
Smart woman that'll take me home, take me home

Beauty and brains
Best of both worlds
Think I can change
If you'll be my, be my, be my girl

I'm looking for a smart woman in a real short skirt
Smart woman who knows how to flirt
Smart woman got a mind of her own
Smart woman that'll take me home, take me home

I'm looking for a smart woman in a real short skirt
Smart woman who knows how to flirt
Smart woman got a mind of her own
Smart woman better take me home, take me home
