

A Letter To An Angel

Jimmy Clanton

Dearest darling
I'm writing to say
That I still love you
And will, come what may

They say I won't find you
That you're in a dream
But dearest darling
You're an angel to me

I see you in the moonlight
I see you in the trees
Oh, how is it possible
To love just a dream

So angel, my angel
I'll close for today
And write you tomorrow
Please hear what I say

I see you in the moonlight
I see you in the trees
Oh, how is it possible
To love just a dream

So angel, my angel
I'll close for today
And write you tomorrow
So hear what I say
