

All For Love

Jimmy Cliff

I've travelled far and wide
Over hills and mountain side
I've pushed aside my pride
All for love
I've travelled near and far
On foot, ship, train and car
I've wished upon a star
All for love
I've broken all the rules
I've even played the fool
Sometimes I blow my cool
All for love
Through burning sun and pouring rain
And even though I feel the pain
I'd do it all again
All for love
For love, for love,
For love, all for love
For love, for love, for love
All for love
I've travelled countless miles
Going in and out of styles
Wearing frown and wearing smile
All for love
Sometimes my faith decrease
And my anger increase
Still I keep the peace
All for love
For love, for love,
for love, all for love
For love, for love, for love
All for love
A man will sacrifice his wealth
And loose his health
Sometimes his poor heart melt
All for love
A woman will leave her home to Rome
And leave her family
To be with the one she loves
All for love
For love, for love,
For love, all for love
For love, for love,
For love, all for love
I look deep down in my soul
From thing that I behold
Sometimes I lose control
I've sacrificed
I pay the price
Still I hear that sweet refrain
Do it again, do it again
All for love
