

Another Summer

Jimmy Cliff

Another spring, another summer
Another fall, another winter
Another time, another place
Another space for feeling fine
Another year, another gear
Another day, a bright new way
Another season, another reason
Another time for feeling fine
We ain't holding back now
We're letting it all hang out
Let it all hang out
Right out

The time is now
Our dreams are coming thought
See them coming true
Right through
Another spring, another summer
Another fall, another winter
Another stand and it's so grand
Another space in the human race
