

So Much To Lose

Jimmy Cozier

Yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah

Stepped up out the club and I can't believe my eyes
My watch says 3: 55
Where did the time go?
I promised her and I lied
Supposed I lost my love for a night out on the town
Left her standing in her gown
Where would my answers be when questions come around?

Lost track of time hanging with the fellas, oh
My jeep broke down
Had to change the tires, oh
My cell was off
Didn't get your message, oh
Or should I just tell her the truth?
But I can't cause she's so much to lose
So much to lose, so much to lose, so much to lose

3: 59
I drive up to the crib thinking 'bout the things I did
Unspeakable if she knew she'd surely fit
Here I go again
Telling lies to my best friend
Now my love life's on a string
I'd give anything if I could make it right again

Lost track of time hanging with the fellas, oh
My jeep broke down
Had to change the tires, oh
My cell was off
Didn't get your message, oh
Or should I just tell her the truth?
But I can't cause she's so much to lose
So much to lose, so much to lose, so much to lose

If I turn back time
I'd be the man she wants me to be
But life just ain't right
And if I say I was untrue
She would just walk out on me

Lost track of time hanging with the fellas, oh
My jeep broke down had to change the tires, oh
My cell was off
Didn't get your message, oh
Or should I just tell her the truth?
But I can't cause she's so much to lose
So much to lose, so much to lose, so much to lose

Lost track of time hanging with the fellas, oh
My jeep broke down
Had to change the tires, oh
My cell was off
Didn't get your message, oh
Or should I just tell her the truth
But I can't cause she's so much to lose

So much to lose, so much to lose, so much to lose

Lost track of time hanging with the fellas, oh

My jeep broke down had to change the tires, oh

My cell was off

Didn't get your message, oh

Or should I just tell her the truth

But I can't cause she's so much to lose

So much to lose, so much to lose, so much to lose
