

Living In A World I Created For Myself

Jimmy Ruffin

Oooh-oooh-oh-oooh yeah
Hmm hmmm

Sitting around, doing nothing
I've got nothing on my mind
And if you should stop to talk to me
Said you'd just be wasting your time
'Cause I don't know nothing about nothing, no no
Nothing, nothing bothers me

'Cause I'm living in a world I created for myself
And it's alright in my world
I'm living in a world I created for myself
Oh yeah, yeah, yeah

Some folks call me a hippie
They try to tell me I've got peculiar ways, oh yeah
Funny clothes, the funny clothes that I'm wearing
Oh you might say I'm a big disgrace, but listen people
That don't bother me
'Cause I'm doing alright ya see
Right here

Living in a world I created for myself
Can't you dig it, can't you dig it now?
I'm living in a world I created for myself
Oh yeah, listen people

Once I lived in your world, yeah
Among many, in a field of hope
Only to find in your world
There was no time for laughter and jokes
So I packed up my mind, yeah yeah
And I loaded up all my nerves

And right now I'm living, living in a world I created for myself
Oh it's alright in my world
Living, living in a world I created for myself
Oh baby baby

Oh yeah, yeah, yeah
Oh I'm living, living in a world I created for myself
Come on and join me - don't bother me baby
'Cause I'm living, living in a world I created for myself
Heaven heed big fun all by myself
Living in a, living in a world I created for myself
It's alright here in my world, oh baby
Living, living, living in a world...
