

Girl Falling Down

Jimmy Somerville

Love's broken down again
She's on the floor and crying
Her life is colored black and blue

She lives in fear of him
That next time he might go too far
This isn't how she thought that it would be

Girl falling down
Nobody sees
Girl on the edge
Of some tragedy

Her only love in life
The child he said he'd take away
The thought of losing her was just too much

So she took her life
Intending she would do the same
They found her trying in the pouring rain

Girl falling down
And nobody sees
Girl on the edge
Of some tragedy

Did you see her?
Did you care?
Was she broken?
And did you care?
When she called out to you
Were you there?

Girl falling down
And nobody sees
Girl on the edge
Of some tragedy

This girl falling down
And nobody sees
This girl on the edge
Of some tragedy
This girl
