

Belongs To You

Jimmy Wayne

I've wasted so much time believing that in this life you tried to get all you can take.
When all along what I've been needing was to find just one good reason to give myself.
Really give myself away.

Every sime that lights my face
Every teardrop
Every trace
Every secret hit played
Belongs to you
Anything thats good in me
All I ever hope to be
Every drop of every dream
Belongs to you

You know the me that I remember
Always thought I had to keep it all inside
You're troubled being tender
So you never say surrender
But finding you has finally proved me wrong

Every sime that lights my face
Every teardrop
Every trace
Every secret hit played
Belongs to you
Anything thats good in me
All I ever hope to be
Every drop of every dream
Belongs to you

I'm letting go
I'm letting go now of everything that ever held on to

Every place I've ever been Every chance I get again
Every secret Every scent
Belongs to you
Anything thats good in me
All I ever hope to be
Every drop of every dream
Belongs to you

It all belongs to you
