

Beat Kune Do

Jin

Tryna let the world know
This that Beat Kune Do
Lights, camera, action
Hone the mic, I never been slackin'
Every time I step foot in the booth, enter the dragon
For way too long, they been tryna box me in
The Chinese kid that raps, AKA MC Jin
They call it trap 'cause they don't wanna see you grow
It's no secret, peep it, knowledge you tryna seek, I know
Inspired by Bruce Lee, yeah this that Si-Fu flow
True MCs can rhyme on anything, we call this Beat Kune Do
Ain't gon' lie, lost my drive, tell Allah, Jesus just take the wheel
Hands up high, can't deny that my faith is real (faith is real)
We gon' ride side by side with my face revealed (you see the face)
Catch this vibe, yeah that's right, this is not a drill
Now, why would you try to be something you're not?
Just 'cause you think it's the way to the top
You'll be confused that it's actually hot
Just 'cause you see that the views are alive
No, no, no, that is not the way to go
Bro, bro, bro, I just thought that you should know

Let me just beat the records, y'all

This that type of track I jump on with no hesitation
Serving gourmet rhymes all the time, I know the guests are waiting
Every line is designed for this special occasion
Have a seat, grab a plate, no need for reservations
Since day one, I knew that I was bound to be a factor
I come from an era when you were actually proud to be a rapper
Through the pain and laughter, my story's been remastered
I took the pages of failure and made it my favourite chapter
They tried to roll the end credits, but I never let them move me
Besides, you know the book is always better than the movie
Nowadays, I ain't even rhymin' to get more bucks
I'm just tryna free my mind, okay fine, my someone's robust
My style is no style, I just thought that y'all should know
Every performance formless, I'm water with the flow
Honestly just be yourself, that's the path you need to go
