

Behind Enemy Lines

Jin

There's time when I can't pretend
I can't figure out WHO's a foe or friend
Can't tell what's real or see what's fake
Thought I was safe till the stakes blend in Lies are poisonous
For what's dangerous is what's strange to us is the same as us
If I can't trust myself
Tell me who can I trust
No answer yet
But every chance I get
I'll make sure that I stay focused
Tryna pass the test
Look passed my stress
Maybe you'll see why I wrote this
Time's up
Sign up
So so what we fighting for
On the front lines
This is crunch time
Who are we fighting y'all

Yea I know that I'll be fine
Even though in a world
We just don't see eye to eye
I fight, I will climb
No I will not be declaimed
I spend my life, spreading light
While behind enemy line

Listen
And so the question remains
Who is it that we're fighting
Is there a lesson to gain
I believe its in the writing
He's side Is convinced
Declaring that our God is better
Ever since then
Feels like we've all been the odds forever
So divided
He set to see
Hopefully, gradually
We put down the us vs them mentality
Knocked down the mental walls that causes sin
And I don't just see but agree
As men we've all been exposed to sin
For the simple fact that we've been through that
You can say that we in the same ship
In a see of sinful acts I ask
Who's to say that we can't flip
Its not impossible
Highly logical
That we all go over board
Through every obstacle
I do what I gats to do
So that you can know the lord
He knew what was in store
For is to win the war he had to die

My saviour was crucified let world hear my battle cry

Yea
I ain't the leader
I don't deserve it doing salute me
I'm just a servant hardly nervous when they persecute me
Those held responsible
Here's what I say to you
He's love for us is unexplainable and so I pray for you
Mock me, lie about me, say your evil things
For this I shall rejoice I made the choice to please my king
I know my true enemy, so I ain't fighting you
We celebrating victory, I'm just inviting you
Welcome
