

Crazy Times

Jin

Qíshí méishénme yìng bù yìng gāi
Zuò hǎo zìjǐ tiáozhèng nǐ de xīntài cái huì jīngcǎi
Zhè shìjiè gēnběn jiùshì gǔ líng jìng guài

We living in crazy times, but I'm pretty sure you knew Who's an expert, who's the fool, who do you even listen to
I have no intentions to debate what is or isn't true
We all looking at the same picture, just from a different view
If life's a game, you gotta play it no matter win or lose
I ain't got no tips or clues, everyday they switch the rules
Facts and opinions get confused, but that isn't somethin' new
Before it falls apart, no telling if conditions will improve

Is there hope, is it over, what's the game plan, we all guessing
Won't get the right answers, asking the wrong questions
You wonder what's the point, the point is that you probably missed it
They say think outside the box, but to me the box never existed
I went from smooth sailing to watching my ship sink and it sucked
Tell me am I thinking too much, or is it that y'all not thinking enough
The odds are some of y'all might find me hard to understand
That makes us even, 'cause the way I see it being odds an upperhand
