

Glow

Jin

Let go of every sorrow you hold
Watch the dead come to life in this Valley of Bone
We'll light a fire in this darkness below

And the whole world will start to
Glow (oh oh oh oh) Oh Whoa (oh oh oh)
Glow (oh oh oh oh) Oh Whoa (oh oh oh)

Yo, just an adolescent with a dream
My life's a movie
I projected on the screen
And the storyline's borderline tragic
So many plot twists
I wonder how I got casted
Then it got drastic
Not to be sarcastic
When I say I found new life
Inside a casket
I had to bury myself
My ego
No shame in crying for help
A hero
Is what they wanted
I just wanted to deliver
Didn't mean to disappoint
No point in crying
You a river
So I'm sticking to the lakes that
I'm used to
Tender-loving care
For the world
And my future
It's like I see it in a whole
New light
I been clingin' onto what hurts way too tight
I do have a choice
Learned to listen
With my heart, not my ears
And I heard a voice
What was it sayin'

Let go of every sorrow you hold
Watch the dead come to life in this Valley of Bone
We'll light a fire in this darkness below
And the whole world will start to
Glow (oh oh oh oh) Oh Whoa (oh oh oh)
Glow (oh oh oh oh) Oh Whoa (oh oh oh)

Yo, at times
The glow can get so dim
Things are flawed
And the walls they just close in
And I know home
Feels like the worst place
Don't wanna stay there
For long like first base
It's like a soap opera

Seein' your folks drama
Thinkin' why even get
Married in the first place
On the flip side
You feel so lonely
Waitin' for Mr. Right
Keep meeting Mr. So Phony
He says he'll treat you like a queen
Yeah, barely knows what that means
You're a father of three
And hard workin'
Tryin' to make a honest livin'
But not certain
Worried 'bout tomorrow
'Cause you're broke today
They can take your job
But never your hope away
You do have a choice
Learn to listen with
Your heart, not your ears
And you'll hear a voice
Sayin'

Let go of every sorrow you hold
Watch the dead come to life in this Valley of Bone
We'll light a fire in this darkness below
And the whole world will start to
Glow (oh oh oh oh) Oh Whoa (oh oh oh)
Glow (oh oh oh oh) Oh Whoa (oh oh oh)

I'm not sayin'
That the pain can
Be avoided
It's part of the ride
Might as well enjoy it
And it's okay to stumble and fall
As long as you pick yourself up
It humbles us all
A million-and-one stories
Under the stars
Hopefully I can
Be the one that you call
Through our trials
We can grow together
C'mon
We can make
The world
Glow forever

Whoa Oh Oh
We let it Go Oh Oh
We'll make it
Glow Oh Oh

We'll light a fire in this darkness below
And the whole world will start to
Glow (Whoa Oh Oh
We let it Go Oh Oh
We'll make it Glow Oh Oh))
We'll light a fire in this darkness below (Keep that glow alive)
And the whole world will start to (Yeah)
Glow (oh oh oh oh) Oh Whoa (oh oh oh)
(If we glow together, we'll glow forever)

Glow (oh oh oh oh) Oh Whoa (oh oh oh)
(If we glow together, we'll glow forever)
Glow (oh oh oh oh) Oh Whoa (oh oh oh)
(I said we glow together, we'll glow forever)
Glow (oh oh oh oh) Oh Whoa (oh oh oh)
(Watch us glow together, and glow forever)
