

Healing (Outro)

Jin

I told you that my faith is ridiculous
Its hard to recognize the face of a hypocrite
I'm staring at the mirror, its getting clearer

I see exactly who I am and I'm so sick of it
What a predicament
Imagine how I feel
Tryna hide a ladder can nolonger be concealed
Aha

But the cure has been reviewed
Heal me lord and I shall be healed
A simple declaration but a sure thing
Its Jeremiah 17: 14
See when I quote the bible in my lines
I can't help but have a thought
To run across my mind
I'm in the booth making a reference to the word
The truth is the listener might think its absurd
Won't water down my beliefs
To making more repealing
Just tryna be transparent
So you know how I'm feeling
I'm healing
I said I'm healing
Yeah
Speaking of transparency
I can't deny my flaws and insecurities
Faithfully praying yes I am grateful
Impatiently waiting to see a breakthrough
To be free from the lust of my flesh
Only satisfied by love nothing less
I say I wang more of you and less of me
But underneath it all its just envy and jealousy
Is it for myself? or is it ministry?
Look what you started Lord
Please finish me
I just wanna be real
I just wanna be healed
I just wanna be healed
