

Roller Coaster

Jin

What's life? Balance, I suppose
To fail and succeed, yeah, that's just how it goes
Pray on your knees, stay on your toes
Life's a roller coaster

It's been twenty years in the game through the tears and the pain
Had to switch gears, but I never veered from my lane
When the cheers disappeared, and I would hear its a shame
What happened to his career, man, I been here just the same
See when you flying high, you be feeling so blessed
But how you deal with turbulence, that's the true test
Some folks be doing too much, others are clueless
Me? I just focus on doing what I do best
Success is not about reaching the top at all
It's getting up, no matter how many times you fall
So when opportunity comes knockin' at my door
I'm quick to open it like I got a ring cam installed
Man, it's been a roller coaster
Used to have my favorite rappers on the wall
Now my face is on a poster
Crazy how ya point of view changes when you're older
All I know is that this ride is far from over

What's life? Balance, I suppose
To fail and succeed, yeah, that's just how it goes
Pray on your knees, stay on your toes
It's like a roller coaster filled with highs and lows
(Pu-put ya hands up) Through the highs and the lows
(Pu-put ya hands up) Through the highs and the lows
(Pu-put ya hands up) Through the highs and the lows
Life's a roller coaster filled with highs and lows

Tomorrow's not promised, so your mission today
Is to treat tomorrows, yesterday like a gift on display
Make the most of every moment, yeah, it's simple to say
Hard to do, I won't front like the statement isn't cliché
But as long as your actions match the image portrayed
Just keep doing you but see what isn't okay
Is givin' up the wheel even when you didn't valet
Got a dead, those negative thoughts, start diggin' the grave
Strap in tight, 'cause this gon' be the ride of your life
Might as well keep ya eyes wide open, take in the sights
One moment you might be lost in the fun
Next thing you know, all of life's twists and turns
Got you tossin' your lunch
Face it head-on, no option to run
Feels like nobody hears you, even though you screamin' at the top of your lungs
Don't forget to look back, just to see how far you've come
Last thing you want is regrets when it's all said and done

What's life? Balance, I suppose
To fail and succeed, yeah, that's just how it goes
Pray on your knees, stay on your toes
It's like a roller coaster filled with highs and lows
(Pu-put ya hands up) Through the highs and the lows
(Pu-put ya hands up) Through the highs and the lows

(Pu-put ya hands up) Through the highs and the lows
Life's a roller coaster filled with highs and lows

One day you're up then down
We gon' ride it out together, don't pass out now
No matter how high, we end up back on the ground
One day you're up then down

One day you're up then down
We gon' ride it out together, don't pass out now
No matter how high, we end up back on the ground
One day you're up then down

What's life? Balance, I suppose
To fail and succeed, yeah, that's just how it goes
Pray on your knees, stay on your toes
It's like a roller coaster filled with highs and lows
(Pu-put ya hands up) Through the highs and the lows
(Pu-put ya hands up) Through the highs and the lows
(Pu-put ya hands up) Through the highs and the lows
Life's a roller coaster filled with highs and lows

What's life? Balance, I suppose
To fail and succeed, yeah, that's just how it goes
Pray on your knees, stay on your toes
It's like a roller coaster filled with highs and lows
(Pu-put ya hands up) Through the highs and the lows
(Pu-put ya hands up) Through the highs and the lows
(Pu-put ya hands up) Through the highs and the lows
Life's a roller coaster filled with highs and lows
