

Yeah

Jin

It's the capital J.I.'N, never say die
Known for attacking the track, plus the way I
Crack these rappers in half for thinking they fly
In the ring acting like Ca$his when they lay lie
Nothin' but daughters and sons, I record on the run
Gotta sword for a tongue, my vocal cords are my lungs combine forces
Spitting with more power than the engine of 5 Porches
And nine horses, ya'll see the way that I walk hear the way that I talk
And think there's no way I'll just wait by the phone
But I am and each day it's inflating my balls
But you rather concentrate on my flows, fuck ya'll!

Light up the booth, I'm in the coupe
A hundred proof, am I the truth?
The kid is back, is he the crack?
We getting stats, so fall back

Known for attacking the track, plus the way I
Crack these rappers in half for thinking they fly
In the ring acting like Ca$his when they lay lie
I seen a lot of with these eyes
You should not be surprised when I decide to get cocky
Besides I'm only 5'6" kinda stocky my size
It's not a factor how I'd be out rocking these dimes
Whether it's 20 thou or 20 in the crowd
I go hard like I never made a penny wow
I got plenty styles this just one of 'em
You can have it if you want I gotta ton of 'em
My homie Kameezy (Kamel Pratt) say the game needs me
I digress, you can blame my mate Breezy
I get brains easy in the back of the plane under the blankets
While my IPOD is playing Jeezy
Maybe some cane 'o easy, shuffle up the playlist
Won't stop till I'm included in your fucking favorites
As before I die...
What's the point of being in top 5 if I gotta relocate to the sky?

Light up the booth, I'm in the coupe
A hundred proof, am I the truth?
The kid is back, is he the crack?
We getting stats, so fall back

See, I'm planning to blow
My fans stand in my show
Both hands up while I'm handing 'em dough
No, I just hand them a flow

Till your man's like, shiiit Jin's nice and you like dammit I know

Light up the booth, I'm in the coupe
A hundred proof, am I the truth?
The kid is back, is he the crack?
We getting stats, so fall back
