Destroy

Jinjer

You want it all (right here and right now)
You take control (of ice and fire)
Selling soul (for gold and money)
Never enough (dirty desire)

Pushing things far, exceeding limits
Thinking that you're God! Do you believe it?
You’re turning everyone into your puppets
I have seen enough. I’ve got to make it end!

No more! No! No more! Hey!

Skies are falling in your hands of vanity
Hold on, you're destroying everything that you can see

You want destroy! Was born to destroy!

You’ve gone too far (and there’s no turning back)
You started war (and now it’s time to pay)
Turning saints into the sinners (money makes you think that you ’re the winner)

Hold on, skies are falling in your hands of vanity
You’re all! You're destroying everything that you can see

No! No more! No! No more!

What made you think that you can break the things you did not c reate?

Hold on, skies are falling in your hands of vanity

Hands of vanity! Hands of vanity!

You want destroy. Was born to destroy!
