

Exposed as a Liar

Jinjer

Since the world goes round
Through the age of lies
We've been hiding our trust
Under tons of dust
Under tons of dust

We're expecting a stab
In a back from a friend
We're all to attack
But never know how to defend
It's easy to believe
In something you can't see
While deceiving all your life
You catch me out in a lie

Downright
Monstrous, barefaced, outrageous
Monstrous (monstrous) outrageous (outrageous)
Monstrous (monstrous) outrageous

Can't you see it is so downright?
Set me free for it holds me tight
I wanna feel that bitter taste
Set me free; now tell the truth to me
Can't you see it is so downright?
Set me free for it holds me tight
I wanna feel that bitter taste
Set me free; please, tell me

Will you speak the truth?
Liberate me from the noose
I've been tied down for so long
Take us to a new stage
Turn another page
Where we're not suspected anymore

Trapped like a fly
In the tissue of lies
I rot in delusion and trickery
Fuck all your deceptions
Fuck your mesmerism
Fuck the bullshit you've been feeding us with You've been feeding us with

Will you speak the truth?
Liberate me from the noose
I've been tied down for so long
Take us to a new stage
Turn another page
Where we're not suspected anymore

Will you speak the truth?
Will you speak the truth?
Will you speak the truth?
Will you speak the truth?
