

Until the End

Jinjer

When the final illusion falls apart
When the world's at the end
And sent back to the start
I'll be right where you need me

You say you're trapped and it seems there is no way out
You've lost your will to live and found new doubts
I will bleed for you if I have to
This is my choice I'm willing to help you

Never say always
All shall come to pass
Never say always
Beauty never lasts

You don't know what's in my soul
And you can't hear what's in my head
I'll hold on to what's my own
Until the end, until I'm dead

When the final illusion falls apart
I'll be right where you need me

I know our roads separated us
I know you hurt but this pain won't last
I can die for you if I have to
This is my price I'm willing to pay it

Never say always
All shall come to pass
Never say always
Beauty never lasts

No! I will never die
No! I will never die
No! I will never die
No! I will never die

You hold on to what's your own
And you can't hear what's in my head
You hold on to what's your own
And you can't hear what's in my head

No! I will never die
No! I will never die
No! I will never die
No! I will never die
