Winter Snow

J.J. Cale

Winter snow keeps on falling
Somebody has opened up the sky
Winter snow keeps on falling
Somebody has opened up the sky
It looks like out my window
White butterflies

Got no change in my pocket
Got no coat to keep me warm
This winter snow is blowing
Keeps me from traveling on

Yes down the road is sunshine
I could use some help you know
With no change in my pocket
I can't fight this winter snow

Winter snow keeps on falling
Somebody has opened up the sky
Winter show keeps on falling
Somebody has opened up the sky
It looks like out my window
White butterflies

Blowing wind it must be zero
Should be outward bound
Between this dark and dreary weather
I'll be hanging round

Had my wish I would be gone now
This wind would never blow
No change in the weather
I must live with winter show

Winter snow keeps on falling
Somebody has opened up the sky
Winter snow keeps on falling
Somebody has opened up the sky
It looks like out my window
White butterflies

Winter show keeps on falling
Somebody has opened up the sky
