

Brave Lil' Fighter

JJ Grey & Mofro

Am I at peace with my maker?
All in good time going to tell
Was you born a liar?
Well it's the same, same old operator
Trying to fool me again, again
Am I going to play a fools errand?

Gun on the table, a cold player
But you can't hide with a bullet
There's no ending to it
Ah it won't change a thing

Another day, another day
Another dollar and gone again
It's a shame, to carry the weight
Of a hidden pain
When you want to fly so much higher
They rev you up
There you go, you got a green light
Rolling green light go, go, go on
You're playing the game, game to lose

Yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah
Oh Lord it's time, time for some change
Who are you baby?
Oh Lord I'm feeling so insane

Oh yeah
How much I got to prove
How much do I got to prove
Prove to you before you listen baby
Listen to me?

Time ain't going to stand still no more
How many more times you got to be told before?
Oh you've got to get, got to get, got to get
Got to get on up and get it done right now

Had a long day and I'm tired
Brave little fighter
You brave, you brave, you brave
Brave lil' fighter
Brave lil' fighter
Brave lil' fighter

Brave lil' fighter
Ain't nothing out there baby
Ain't nothing out there
That ain't already you
