

Standing On The Edge

JJ Grey & Mofro

Time, Has a way of rolling on
And no matter how hard you try
You can't seem to hold on
But maybe, we can hold onto one another
Inside of our love
For a little while
Why not, It's all up to us
Here we are - standing on the edge of love
Tonight is a drop, in the ocean of eternity
In all this current we flow, out into the open sea
Our destination is unknown
But if we let our hearts choose the course
One thing is for sure, we can get there together
Why not, It's all up to us
Here we are - standing on the edge of love
