

A Good Day

JJ Heller

If there's a finger-painted house
Hanging on the fridge
If there are toys left on the couch
And crumbs from sandwiches
If there are backyard dandelions
Wilting in a vase
You know it's been a good day

Everything that's beautiful is right under our nose
Shining like a diamond in the chaos of our homes
When it's so familiar it makes it hard to see
We already have all that we need for a good day
Good day

If you have dishes left to do
And laundry on the floor
If there's a mound of muddy shoes
Piled up by the door
If there are candles to blow out
And memories you wouldn't trade
You know it's been a good day

Everything that's beautiful is right under our nose
Shining like a diamond in the chaos of our homes
When it's so familiar it makes it hard to see
We already have all that we need for a good day
It's a good day

If you get hugs around the neck
Or kisses on the cheek
If you get to hold a sticky hand
Or wash a skinned up knee
If you can read a Goodnight Moon
Until they drift away
You know it's been a good day
You know it's been a good day
