Daylight

JJ Heller

Lord, I have been afraid for so long.
I have prayed so many times to be strong.
I sit here in the desert making circles in the sand,
but you tell me that you're the promised land.

There is an inch of daylight underneath the door;
It's enough for me to fill up my canteen.
Food and water are only buying time,
if I want to live, your love is what I need.

I am scared to death of taking the wrong turn.
Pieces of something nobody can earn.
There is no chance now of losing, when you've given me your lov e.
You heal the disease I was dying of

There is an inch of daylight underneath the door;
It's enough for me to fill up my canteen.
Food and water are only buying time,
if I want to live, your love is what I need.

Be near me.
Be near me now.
Be near me.
Be near me now.

There is an inch of daylight underneath the door;
It's enough for me to fill up my canteen.
Food and water are only buying time,
if I want to live, your love is what I need.
If I want to live, your love is what I need.
