

Dream

JJ Heller

Sleeping girl
Don't wake up too fast today
Broken world
Please be kind and don't stay too long

Dream little girl of days so long ago
Dream little girl

Memories haunt the corners of my mind
Imagining they will find something new
I've been so long without you

I need a distraction
To numb this reaction of my heart and mind
So help me endure this
And I pray that I won't miss it all

Sleeping girl
Don't wake up too fast today
Broken world
What can I learn from you today
