

Sound of a Living Heart

JJ Heller

I could hide myself away
Somewhere safe
Far from pain
But if I refuse to feel
I'll never bleed
But I'll never heal

I hear Jesus calling me
Out of the grave I've been sleeping in
With new lungs
I'll begin again
Lift my voice and sing my part
This is the sound of a living heart

I have found a better life
A hero and a cause
Every tear will be redeemed
In the hands of God

I hear Jesus calling me
Out of the grave I've been sleeping in
With new lungs
I'll begin again
Lift my voice and sing my part
This is the sound of a living heart
