

Stop Pretending

JJ Heller

If you only knew the times that I have cried for you
Then my feelings would be obvious
But somehow along the way it became impossible
To tell you how I feel
You say that's not the way we deal
With life
And love
Relationships
But this is life
This is love and we're wasting it

So cry when you're sad
You don't have to laugh
When it's not funny
Don't try to ignore the rain
When it's not sunny

Do you have a clue how much I am afraid for you
All the things trapped in your heart
Are gonna find their way out
I know that you're going to be broken eventually
But I'm hoping for a healing starting
With your life
And love
Relationships
But this is life
This is love and we're wasting it

You've gotta stop all your pretending
It's not helping
You should know it's ok to cry
