

Suitcase

JJ Heller

You are the breeze in California
Across the sea, over the shore
You are the snow in Colorado
The thought of you, it keeps me warm

Wish I could take you in my suitcase
To every city, every new place
It doesn't really matter where I travel to
My journey starts and ends with you

You are the sky over Montana
I wanna stare and take in the view
You are the light in New York city
Nobody shines as bright as you

Wish I could take you in my suitcase
To every city, every new place
It doesn't really matter where I travel to
My journey starts and ends with you

I know it's hard and you feel lonely
And honestly, I feel it too
Baby, we both know, sometimes I have to go
I always miss you so...

Wish I could take you in my suitcase
To every city, every new place
It doesn't really matter where I travel to
My journey starts and ends with you
My journey starts and ends with you
