

The Sun Will Rise

JJ Heller

When the lights turn down
And the whole world dreams
And it's your turn now
Close your eyes and sleep

Sometimes it feels like forever
When it's dark outside

Baby, the sun will rise
Baby, the sun will rise
However long the night

If you lose your way
And your heart is torn
May my love sing loud
Louder than a thunderstorm

Sometimes it feels like forever
When it's dark outside

Baby, the sun will rise
Baby, the sun will rise
However long the night

And when you feel afraid
And you see shadows on the wall
Wherever there is love
There is no fear at all
