

This Year

JJ Heller

This year
I'm not looking back to who I was
'Cause I'm gonna be someone
I've never been

This year
I'm not focused on the cracks in the walls
Not keeping track of all the times I fall
This year

"So long" to last year
It's all becoming so clear
There's no use living in regret
Let's fight a good fight
Train our eyes to find the light
Make this year the best one yet
Starting right here
Happy New Year

This year
I can't wait to see what good will come
To feel alive instead of feeling numb
This year
I plan on thinking less of I and me
I resolve to think of us and we

"So long" to last year
It's all becoming so clear
There's no use living in regret
Let's fight a good fight
Train our eyes to find the light
Make this year the best one yet
Starting right here
Happy New Year
