

Wondrous Things

JJ Heller

There is a King
Who will help the needy
And He will bring
A song of peace

There is a King
Who will break the oppressor
And we will sing
Yes, we will sing

There is a place
Where the poor are precious
And every face is held in His hands

There is a place
Where the lost are rescued
Where they are safe
Yes, they are safe

There is a King
There is a King
Who only does
Who only does
Wondrous Things

There is a King
There is a King
Who only does
Who only does
Wondrous Things

We have a hope
Higher than the highest mountains
We have a home
In the kingdom of God

We have a hope
We have a firm foundation
Soon we will know
Yes, we will know

(There is a King)

There is a King
There is a King
Who only does
Who only does
Wondrous Things

There is a King
There is a King
Who only does
Who only does
Wondrous Things

May this room
May this city

May this earth
Be filled with His glory

May this cup
May this body
May this church

May this room
May this city
May this earth

May this cup
May this body
May this church

There is a King
There is a King
Who only does
Who only does
Wondrous Things

There is a King
There is a King
Who only does
Who only does
Wondrous Things

Amen
Amen
He only does
He only does
Wondrous Things

Amen
Amen
He only does
He only does
Wondrous Things

He only does
He only does
Wondrous Things
