The light keeps shining on me
Exposing my darkness
I'm sad but I pretend I'm not
It hurts but I pretend it doesn't
Why does the world keep telling me
To do this and that
That damn nagging
I'm too tired to even open my eyes in the morning

I don't know
Why do they say that the light is good?
When it's too dazzling,
I start to frown

When you get used to the dark,
You can start to see the path
Why are you trying to trap me in a frame?
I'm just doing me

The shining sky hides me
I can't see, my eyes close

On & on life goes on
Wherever I want to go
There's no decided path
I'll follow my heart, yeah

On & on life goes on
Wherever my heart goes
I'll express myself
If you feel the same way

Put your glasses on
Put your glasses on
Let your life go on

Who cares if a screw comes loose?
Who cares if you say it's X when everyone else says O?
I say I know but they say I don't
They say I'm all grown up
But why are you pressing down on me?

I wanna be the one and only
What is the standard of success?
My end is in a different place babe
I'm a bit scared but I can do it

I don't know
If the path I'm on is the right one
I'll find everything out at the end of it
When you get used to the dark,
You can start to see the path
There's no answer but why are you making me
Look in the same place?

On & on life goes on
Wherever I want to go

On & on life goes on
I'll express myself

Put your glasses on
Put your glasses on

Hiding under
The horizon of the red sun
After I've disappeared

On & on life goes on
I'll express myself

Put your glasses on
Put your glasses on
If you feel the same way
Let your life go on, on, on, on
On & on
On, on, on, on, on, on
On & on
