

Born To Die

JJ Wilde

Do you remember when we were younger?
Felt the world fall at our feet
All we had was time to wander
Round and round so aimlessly
A suitcase waiting was my shelter
I'd trade it in to just stand still
Didn't think I'd want forever
With you there's only time to kill
With you there's only time

Some were born to win some were born to lose
I know it's dark but I swear it's true
You don't know when you don't get to choose
But I was born to die with you
I was born to die with you

The simple life scared me to death
How can you swear you'll never leave?
Till the next kiss I'll hold my breath
Hoping that you'll wait for me
Hoping that you'll wait

Some were born to win some were born to lose
I know it's dark but I swear it's true
You don't know when you don't get to choose
But I was born to die with you
I was born to die with you
I was born to die with you
I was born to die

Some were born to win some were born to lose
I know it's dark but I swear it's true
You don't know when you don't get to choose
If we're all born to die
Some were born to win some were born to lose
But you and I've got more to prove
You don't know when you don't get to choose

But I was born to die with you
I was born to die with you (oh)
I was born to die with you (die with you)
I was born to die with you (oh)
I was born to die with you
