

I Saw a Prayer

JJ72

I, I saw a prayer, drift by your eyes
I swear I saw a prayer

Perfect at night and perfect at day
The only thing that I can say
Breathe it in, breathe it in

The softest skin I've ever seen
Bluest eyes there's ever been
Breathe it in, breathe it in

Maintenance of simplicity
It's the one thing that cannot be
But breathe it in, breathe it in

Holy ghost and rock 'n roll
Imprints upon your soul
Breathe it in, breathe it in

Capture beauty, escape unlikely

I, I saw a prayer, drift by your eyes
I swear I saw a prayer
I, I swear I saw a prayer

Perfect at night and perfect at day
The only thing that I can say
Breathe it in, breathe it in

The softest skin I've ever seen
Bluest eyes there's ever been
Breathe it in, breathe it in

Maintenance of simplicity
It's the one thing that cannot be
But breathe it in, breathe it in

Capture beauty, escape unlikely

I, I saw a prayer, drift by your eyes
I swear I saw a prayer
I, I saw a prayer, drift by your eyes
I swear I saw a prayer
