

Gingham Check

JKT48

Though I really really do
Have a great big crush on you
I can only hide it deep inside
As you walk by while you push along your bike
You laugh but you don't know what it feels like

As we make our way to work
On the street next to the shore
The sun is like it wants to flirt

Gingham Check
Those short sleeves on your shirt
That shirt you like to wear
Looks so cool that it hurts
Mixing feelings of love and despair
That check pattern is what you'll see in my heart
Gingham Check
Is the pattern of love
Blue-White-Blue
Tell me where do I start?
Should I tell you how I feel inside?
Can't decide
I feel just like
Gingham Check

As the sea comes into view
In a single shade of blue
It will tell me all I have to do
All it takes is just one word inside my mouth
But I try to speak and nothing will come out

It's because I am afraid
This thing between you and me
Is enough to make me happy

Gingham Check
And now summer has gone
So when do I get to put my cardigan on?
But it does not mean for both you and me
We're on this road to wherever it may lead
Gingham Check
Even love has its time
Yes No Yes
If you go I'll be fine
It's because you mean so much to me
Next summer again I'll see
Gingham Check

You see the twinkles on the sea
From sun rays as they glow
Just like how my heart feels when it breaks in two
Between light and shadows

Gingham Check
Those short sleeves on your shirt
Looks so cool that it hurts

Mixing feelings of love and despair
Gingham Check
Tell me where do I start?
Should I tell you how I feel inside?
Can't decide
Gingham Check
