

Cupid

JM De Guzman

I won't blame myself anymore
Same story as before
I will now try to catch my breath
This ain't good anymore to my health

Another woman
Has breached my core

You stupid little creature
You hit so hard
You just look good in pictures
I let down my guard
The next time you try to come around
I'll take you down hard to the ground
I'll break your bones
Your arrows and bow
You stupid little cupid

Stupid cupid
Stupid

I won't shame myself anymore
There is no other cure
Closed down too many doors
Pickin' up the pieces on the floor

Another woman
Has breached my core
My core

You stupid little creature
You hit so hard
You just look good in pictures
I let down my guard
The next time you try to come around
I'll take you down hard to the ground
I'll break your bones
Your arrows and bow
You stupid little cupid

What pains me the most
Is all I know is I'm the only one who's achin'
And you're with someone
Sharin' oh so good good... good... lovin'
(La la la la la la)
I don't have anything against you two
Just tryin' to survive a day without you
Is it really you
Or I was just hit by a love so true
So true

You stupid little creature
You hit so hard
I let down my guard
The next time you try to come around

And I'll break your bones
Your arrows and bow

I will dismantle your bones
I will drown you to your own blood
I will bite off your wings (I let down my guard)
I will bite off your wings
