

I just told, everyone
Who I really am
I was hated, buy it
I was addicted, but I don't mind

Never leave a man behind
They're being loved by many
For who they're not
But I see they're happy
Who is really blinded here
Who can see clearly?
Yeah

We'll keep on running
They'll keep on chasing
But soon we'll fly
Above this indigo's sky
Why even try
And let your life pass you by
When nothing's keepin' you from the sky
Don't you waste another sigh

There's something more than meets the eye
Indigo's sky

I feel so strong though
I'm free of the pain
But memories hit me like punches
I don't see coming
All things that was so good
Seem very disturbing
I hit rock bottom so hard
Like God cut off my wings

We'll keep on running
They'll keep on chasing
But soon we'll fly
Why even try
And let your life pass you by
When nothing's keepin' you from the sky
Don't you waste another sigh

There's something more than meets the eye
Indigo's sky
