

Man's just here
Been spitting for years, top of the game, used to them stares
Top of the game, musical chairs
Passing the crown around with my peers
Blasting the sound we founded and shared
Our scene now surrounded by guys allowed to disguise the sound as like theirs
Vex, 'till I'm about to cry tears
Truss, I'm sticking around 'cause I care
There's a big piece of the pie for us here
But they don't know how to split the pie fair
So start a business, own your own label right now, that's how y ou buy shares
Man's just here

Man's just here
And I'm sick of this fucking scam
Your brain slyly getting programmed
Blud, get rid of this Instagram
Crave that dopamine like it's crack
Yo, this shit should be fucking banned
Fam, I'm a bit prang
'Cause this little shit controls man
Talk but no-one's listening man
They're just clicking it, that's the plan
Social media, isn't it mad?
That it's literally anti that
Yeah, you think you're living it fam?
But you're missing it and it's sad
Trust me, man's just here
