

Move On

JME

Take your last breath
Life or death
What happens before or next
Anyone's guess
Life ain't fair
That's a beautiful lie
There is the painful truth

Yeah, I know it hurts
You have to move on
Yeah, I know it hurts
You have to move on
Move on
Move on
Move on
Move on

Yo, how on Earth are we meant to process this?
There's no training for this shit
My eyes are raining, the tears drip
My heart is paining me from this rip
We can't live life for so long, do one thing wrong, and sink the ship
I've thunk all the thoughts I can think
I'm drunk off the notion that this life I live's important and if
I don't exist then nobody lives
Consciousnesses? No-one knows where it is
I'm always me, always have been
Always will be
At least I think
If you can hear me right now, I'm saying out loud
You will be missed
Peace

Yeah, I know it hurts
You have to move on
Yeah, I know it hurts
You have to move on
Move on
Move on
Move on
Move on

So where do we go from here?
Anybody know?
I'm scared but won't let it show
My biggest fear is no control
When everything you thought mattered was false
In tatters
Reality's been shattered
Time is your friend and your enemy
So much pain, no remedy
But the notion that this life that you live is unique to you
You've got your visions we need to view
You're on your mission out here to feed might You're you, always have been
Always will be
At least I think

If you can hear me right now, I'm saying out loud
We will be missed
Peace

Yeah, I know it hurts
You have to move on
Yeah, I know it hurts
You have to move on
Move on
Move on
Move on
Move on
Yeah, I know it hurts
You have to move on
Yeah, I know it hurts
You have to move on
Move on
Move on
Move on
Move on
