

Work

JME

Hard work pays off

If you want something, work towards it

Work hard, the harder you work the faster you'll get what you wanna get

The only time you've got TT is if you drink Typhoo and Tetley

My flow's so sick it will uppercut Kimbo Slice, Jackie Chan and Jet Li

You people are gonna respect me, bet I'll make you respect me

This flow's deadly, it will resurrect Bruce Lee to be the famous Deadly

The only day that I don't put in work is the 30th of February

Do not fuck with my money, it can be ten bags or 10p

I used to live off my overdraft but now my account is never empty

All my supporters rep me and half of them ain't even met me

Gotta put in that work

Cause I'm putting in work

You gotta put in that

Work

Man are putting in work

You gotta put in that work

Cause I'm putting

In work

You gotta put in that work

Man are putting in work

I wear snowboarding boots to festivals, you can't tell me about style

You're drinking your lager out on the field... but your name ain't Karl

All the shit you do I've done but I ain't touched alcohol in a while

I used to blaze, I turned 21 then I dropped the munk out just like Jahmaal (what)

I moved on and I dropped smokey out, just like Jamal

I'm the eighth wonder of the world so come see me not the Taj Mahal

You want that Beemer you want that Merc, money, cars, clothes

Those are the perks but to get there you gotta put in that work

To those who don't know me, hello

You think you control me? NO

I'm one of the best artists in the world and I leave other MCs below

If you ain't heard of me, hello

Keep up, stop moving S-low

Boy wanna know what Boy Better Know means, for you to find out and for me to know

If you know my face salute, parlais vous français, salut

Je m'appelle JME, let me show you 'round this jungle like Baloo

When you next see my face salute, if not here's some air for you

If it kicks off then jump in first, don't care if it hurts, man put in that work
