

Can We Talk

JMIN

Can we talk it out one last time?
Or maybe, we can fuck one last time
Should we give it just one last try?
'Cause you know you look better when you're mine

People change, things change
Times change, I thought you'd stay the same
I always kept it real with you
But could you ever even say the same?
I need an explanation
Fuck it, we need conversation
You left up on me in a hurry
With no hesitation
You got me driving, smoking 'round
With no destination
You blocked my number
So I wrote this song just as a message
'Cause you know you look better just with me
That's respectfully
You know I'm the best you ever had
That's respectfully
'Cause your new man, he ain't shit
He ain't like me
He can't do it like me
He can't fuck you like me
So shit, let's just get it on
Shit, don't you change the song
Shit, we can shoot a couple movies like we used to
'Cause you know how I like it, I know how you like it, too
I'ma always hit that spot
You know what you gotta do so

Can we talk it out one last time?
Or maybe we can fuck one last time
Should we give it just one last try?
'Cause you know you look better when you're mine

I guess there's couple things I really gotta say
'Cause when I'm with these other girls, it ain't the same
I'm 23 but I just feel like I be 45
Everyday I'm drinking, my anxiety eating me alive
Fake shit only do that real shit
I don't do that fake love but lately, I just need some
I always say that I'm okay but I'm just dying inside
I tell my homies that I'm over you but that's just a lie

'Cause we need conversation
I need explanations
You so complicated
Love is overrated
We need conversation
I need explanations
You so complicated sometimes

Can we talk it out one last time?
Or maybe, we can fuck one last time
Should we give it just one last try?

'Cause you know you look better when you're mine
Can we talk it out one last time?
Or maybe, we can fuck one last time

We trying again and again
It's the same
You lying again and again
It's the same
I hope you don't go do
The things that I like
The thought of you with Someone new makes me die
