The moment I feel it comin on
The days they get so long
If only I could turn the page
And break away from my mistakes
Cause in my mind they build a case
I still try and clear my name
Hopin time will help the change
All the while things stay the same
Its time I break the chains
And set a fire to everything
And go back from where I came

Don't u ever trust me
Don't you try to love me
Don't you ever feed me
Cause you don't wanna free me

Stuck in my obsession
Everyday I question everything
Think I learned my lesson
But every day I question everything

Nothin but drama
Call it what you wanna

Nothin but drama
Call it what you wanna

Nothin but drama
Nothin but drama
Nothin but drama
Nothin but drama
Nothin but

All I wanna do is focus
Forget the fear and the emotions
I try to fix these thing that were not broken
Tell me am I going through the motions

Stuck in my obsession
Everyday I question everything
Think I learned my lesson
But every day I question everything

Nothin but drama
Call it what you wanna

Nothin but drama
Call it what you wanna

Nothin but drama
Nothin but drama
Nothin but drama
Nothin but drama
Nothin but

Nothin but drama

Call it what you wanna

Nothin but drama

Nothin but drama
