

You're so compelling
I feel an internal landslide
It's overwhelming
When both of our worlds collide (oh)

It's shaking out the thunder (shaking out the thunder)
It's changing for better or worse (better or worse)
It's takin out the color (out the color)
Forsaken your time and your worth (come on)

Let the rain come down and wash it all away (let the rain come down)
Let it overflow until the levy breaks (til the levy breaks)
(Yeah, til the levy breaks)

Baby tell me we're gel-ing
Before we die
I'm buying whatever you're selling
So come on let's ride (come on let's ride)

And we'll shake right out the thunder (thunder)
We'll change for better or worse
We'll take out all the color (take out all the color)
Forsaken your time and your worth (so come on let the rain fall down)

Let the rain come down and wash it all away (come on wash every thing away)
Let it overflow until the levy breaks (til the levy breaks)
(Oh, yeah, uh, yeah, oh)
Say, until the levy breaks, yeah (til the levy breaks)

Up down left right, move your body side to side (uh)
Up down left right, move your body side to side (oh, oh)
Up down left right, move your body side to side (come on, until the levy breaks)
Up down left right, move your body side to side (til the levy breaks, come on, oh)
Up down left right, move your body side to side (oh, yeah)
Up down left right (yeah, until the levy breaks)
Up down left right, move your body side to side (come on)
Up down left right (oh, let it rain)
Uh, come on, til the levy breaks, yeah, hey, come on
Oh yeah, yeah yeah yeah
Until the levy breaks, yeah (yeah)
